EDITORIAL

Dear Folks,

We all hope you enjoyed last month's great cover with Sarah Luiz. She is quite a stunner and we only wish that we had more room to extoll of her charms as well as share her unusual story.

What we did neglect to mention in that issue was the actual name of the photographer who took those magnificent photos. Katharine Brown was not only helpful in being a liaison between Sarah and us, she is an accomplished professional in the photographic field. We'd like to use some of our space to apologize for having left her name out of the story, inadvertently, and to thank her for bringing it to our attention immediately. She also wanted us to be sure to mention that it was she who shot the cover that you see above. There. Is everybody happy?

Now, back to the present: Photos from my past. I don't know what personal files of mine Tina was digging through, but she found these kind-of-fun photos taken of me back in New York. As I remember, it was quite a day. I'd just taped a commercial that morning for Saucy Susan Bar-b-que Sauce. It was just like Lucy in the Vitaneataveganin episode. All I can really remember is that they made me wear a powder blue, beaded cocktail-type dress and I held a huge tray of assorted meats. I must have been rather giddy by the time that I arrived at said photo shoot.

My, but I do go on, don't I?

Love,
Kim

Dear Kim,

The other day was a very memorable one for me. I have been a closet TV for sometime, keeping it very quiet and very discreet. And of course being so, one gets the feeling after awhile that you are the only one in the world doing this.

Well, I was able to go visiting in a larger city and had some free time. After making a few phone calls, I found a bookstore that had a whole section on TVs, TSs, etc. I drove across town and walked into this place and standing there was a tall, gorgeous TV! I just about lost my sox — or nylons if you prefer.

There were real live TVs and TSs there as well as videos, magazines, papers and clothing. Good God, I was in TV heaven. But perhaps the biggest eye opener was your magazine, F.M.I. You had a layout of Rhonda Lee Ashton and Cassandra. I couldn't believe my eyes, these "girls" were absolutely beautiful. I cannot believe they really are the same sex as myself, but I believe it if you say it.

I thoroughly enjoyed your magazine. Some of the TV publications really tend to be gross, with guys with hard-ons — that's not very lady-like. The thing that really fascinated me was how really attractive the girls are in your personals. I mean, lets face it guys, we are prettier than the girls are in real life.

You know one of the great mysteries of our TV world is that we all are so afraid to come out.

The real female gender thinks nothing of wearing mens clothes — hell, even today they have a whole line of jockey shorts and bras. I couldn't believe it when my wife started wearing jockey panties.

When I slipped on her panties she about went bonkers because this was not "male." I'm confused — of course I am — I'm a TV.

I just hope and pray for the day when all us girls can wear what we want, when we want, without all kinds of ridicule being thrown our way. After all, wasn't it the guys who wore the silks and lace in the Renaissance? In the real world of nature, isn't it the male species that is the prettiest — the showier — the most colorful? Yeah, guys, let's get our shit together. I think I'll go to work Monday in my female finest. That would blow their minds.

Keep up the good work. I'll keep buying your excellent mag.

Love,
Brandi

Dear Brandi,

Please write soon and tell of your office exposure. I'm sure we'd all love to hear about it.

Best,
Kim

Dear Kim,

Regarding issue No. 55 of F.M.I. let me be one of the many who will be writing to congratulate you on this beautiful issue. I enjoyed this issue from cover to cover (including both covers).

I particularly liked your color photos. It's really hard to decide whether I would like to be the beautiful Cleopatra or her handsome slave — and I'm not even gay!

The "Big Sister Substitute," while not in color, is still a terrific layout and the comments that went with the photos were really quite exciting.

The "Universal Ball" photos are lovely, or rather, the ladies in the photos and the dresses they are wearing are lovely. Oh, to be young and beautiful and have such pretty clothes to wear — it sure makes for a wonderful fantasy.

Kim, your own photo is very sexy. I'll bet you make a real cute French maid.

Once again thank you for a beautiful issue of F.M.I. and may I wish you good health and peace.

Yours truly,
Frankie

Dear Frankie,

Thanks for the encouraging words. We need them from time to time, even if our egos are as big as all outdoors. And how dare you even think of me in a maid's outfit — don't you know who I am?

Imperiously,
Kim

To Ms. Kim,

I'm sitting here in my apartment in Lincoln Park, Chicago, with the latest issue of Female Mimics International in one hand and my penis in the other.

I'm rejoicing in the fact that you are giving so much happiness to young men like me who want desperately to be "girls."

We want to enjoy the female mystique: breasts, silky legs, panties, bras, slips, dresses — all things that give women their specialness.

Your magazine has elevated every man who wants to be a woman to the heights of the angels!

I enjoy every issue, especially the editorial by you. You looked so sexy in one of the recent issues, with your long legs so beautifully displayed.

I know I have a long way to go to become a convincing-looking "woman." I have my share of flaws — including too big of a nose and not-too-sexy hair — but I'll keep working, exercising to shape my figure, electrolysis to make my legs and arms smooth; anything it takes to become the "woman" inside me.

I appreciate your encouragement through publishing letters like mine.

To borrow a phrase, Kim, "you are the greatest!"

Laura

Dear Laura,

Thank you for a lovely letter. Pardon me for saying that you are a classic example of a "girl" who is too hard on herself. Why does everyone want to look like Morgan Fairchild? Don't change your face, I'm sure it's absolutely lovely.

Love,
Kim

Dear Kim,

I wish to extend my deep appreciation and thanks for the wonderful service you and your tremendous staff provide each and every month. Although I have not yet subscribed, I have been a faithful reader of Female Mimics International for many years.

Just when I think that it's impossible for you to top the previous month's issue, the next one comes off the presses and surpasses my greatest expectations. May God provide you with the energy, courage and feminine will to keep up the excellent work on behalf of all the girls and we admiring men.

I know I speak for most of your devoted readers (and friends) when I say, "We need you so much!"

Kim, you're one gorgeous woman and one beautiful person!

Love always,
Keith

Dear Kim,

First of all, thanks for being a bastion of personal freedom for transvestites and transsexuals. I wish I could be as gutsy. I really admire you. You are the best, and I wish I could be like you.

You see, my big problem is telling my mother. Now don't get me wrong. I am not a so-called "mama's boy", but I just don't want to hurt her. But there's also the other side of the coin. I'm tired of living in the closet. It's tearing me apart. I love the feel of panties and nylons, and long for the day when I can be someone's "sissy", be it male, female, or both.

Recently, I met a TV soon to be a TS, and he enhanced my love for female clothes. I will always be grateful to him. I have been in the closet for 19 years. Now that I'm 32, I want and totally desire to come totally out and wear what I want to wear. Society can take a long walk off a short pier. I'm tired of being dictated to. I just want to be free in this respect.

Kim, could you give me suggestions as to how to go about doing this? Like I say, I don't want to hurt anybody, but I'm hurting myself more. So could you help me? PLEASE????!!

I'm at the end of my rope. I have to make her understand so I can go on with my life.

Desperately yours,
John

Dear John,

I hesitate to give direct advice when so many specifics are missing from your letter. For instance, you don't say whether you live in your mother's home or not. More and more these days I am tempted to tell people to seek some professional help in these matters. There are those of us who know exactly what we need to do and march right out there and do it. They are rare. Most of us are strangled with fear at some level.

We want to wear womens clothes for a number of reasons and sometimes it's a good idea to really know our motivations before we jump into a lifestyle that may not suit our needs.

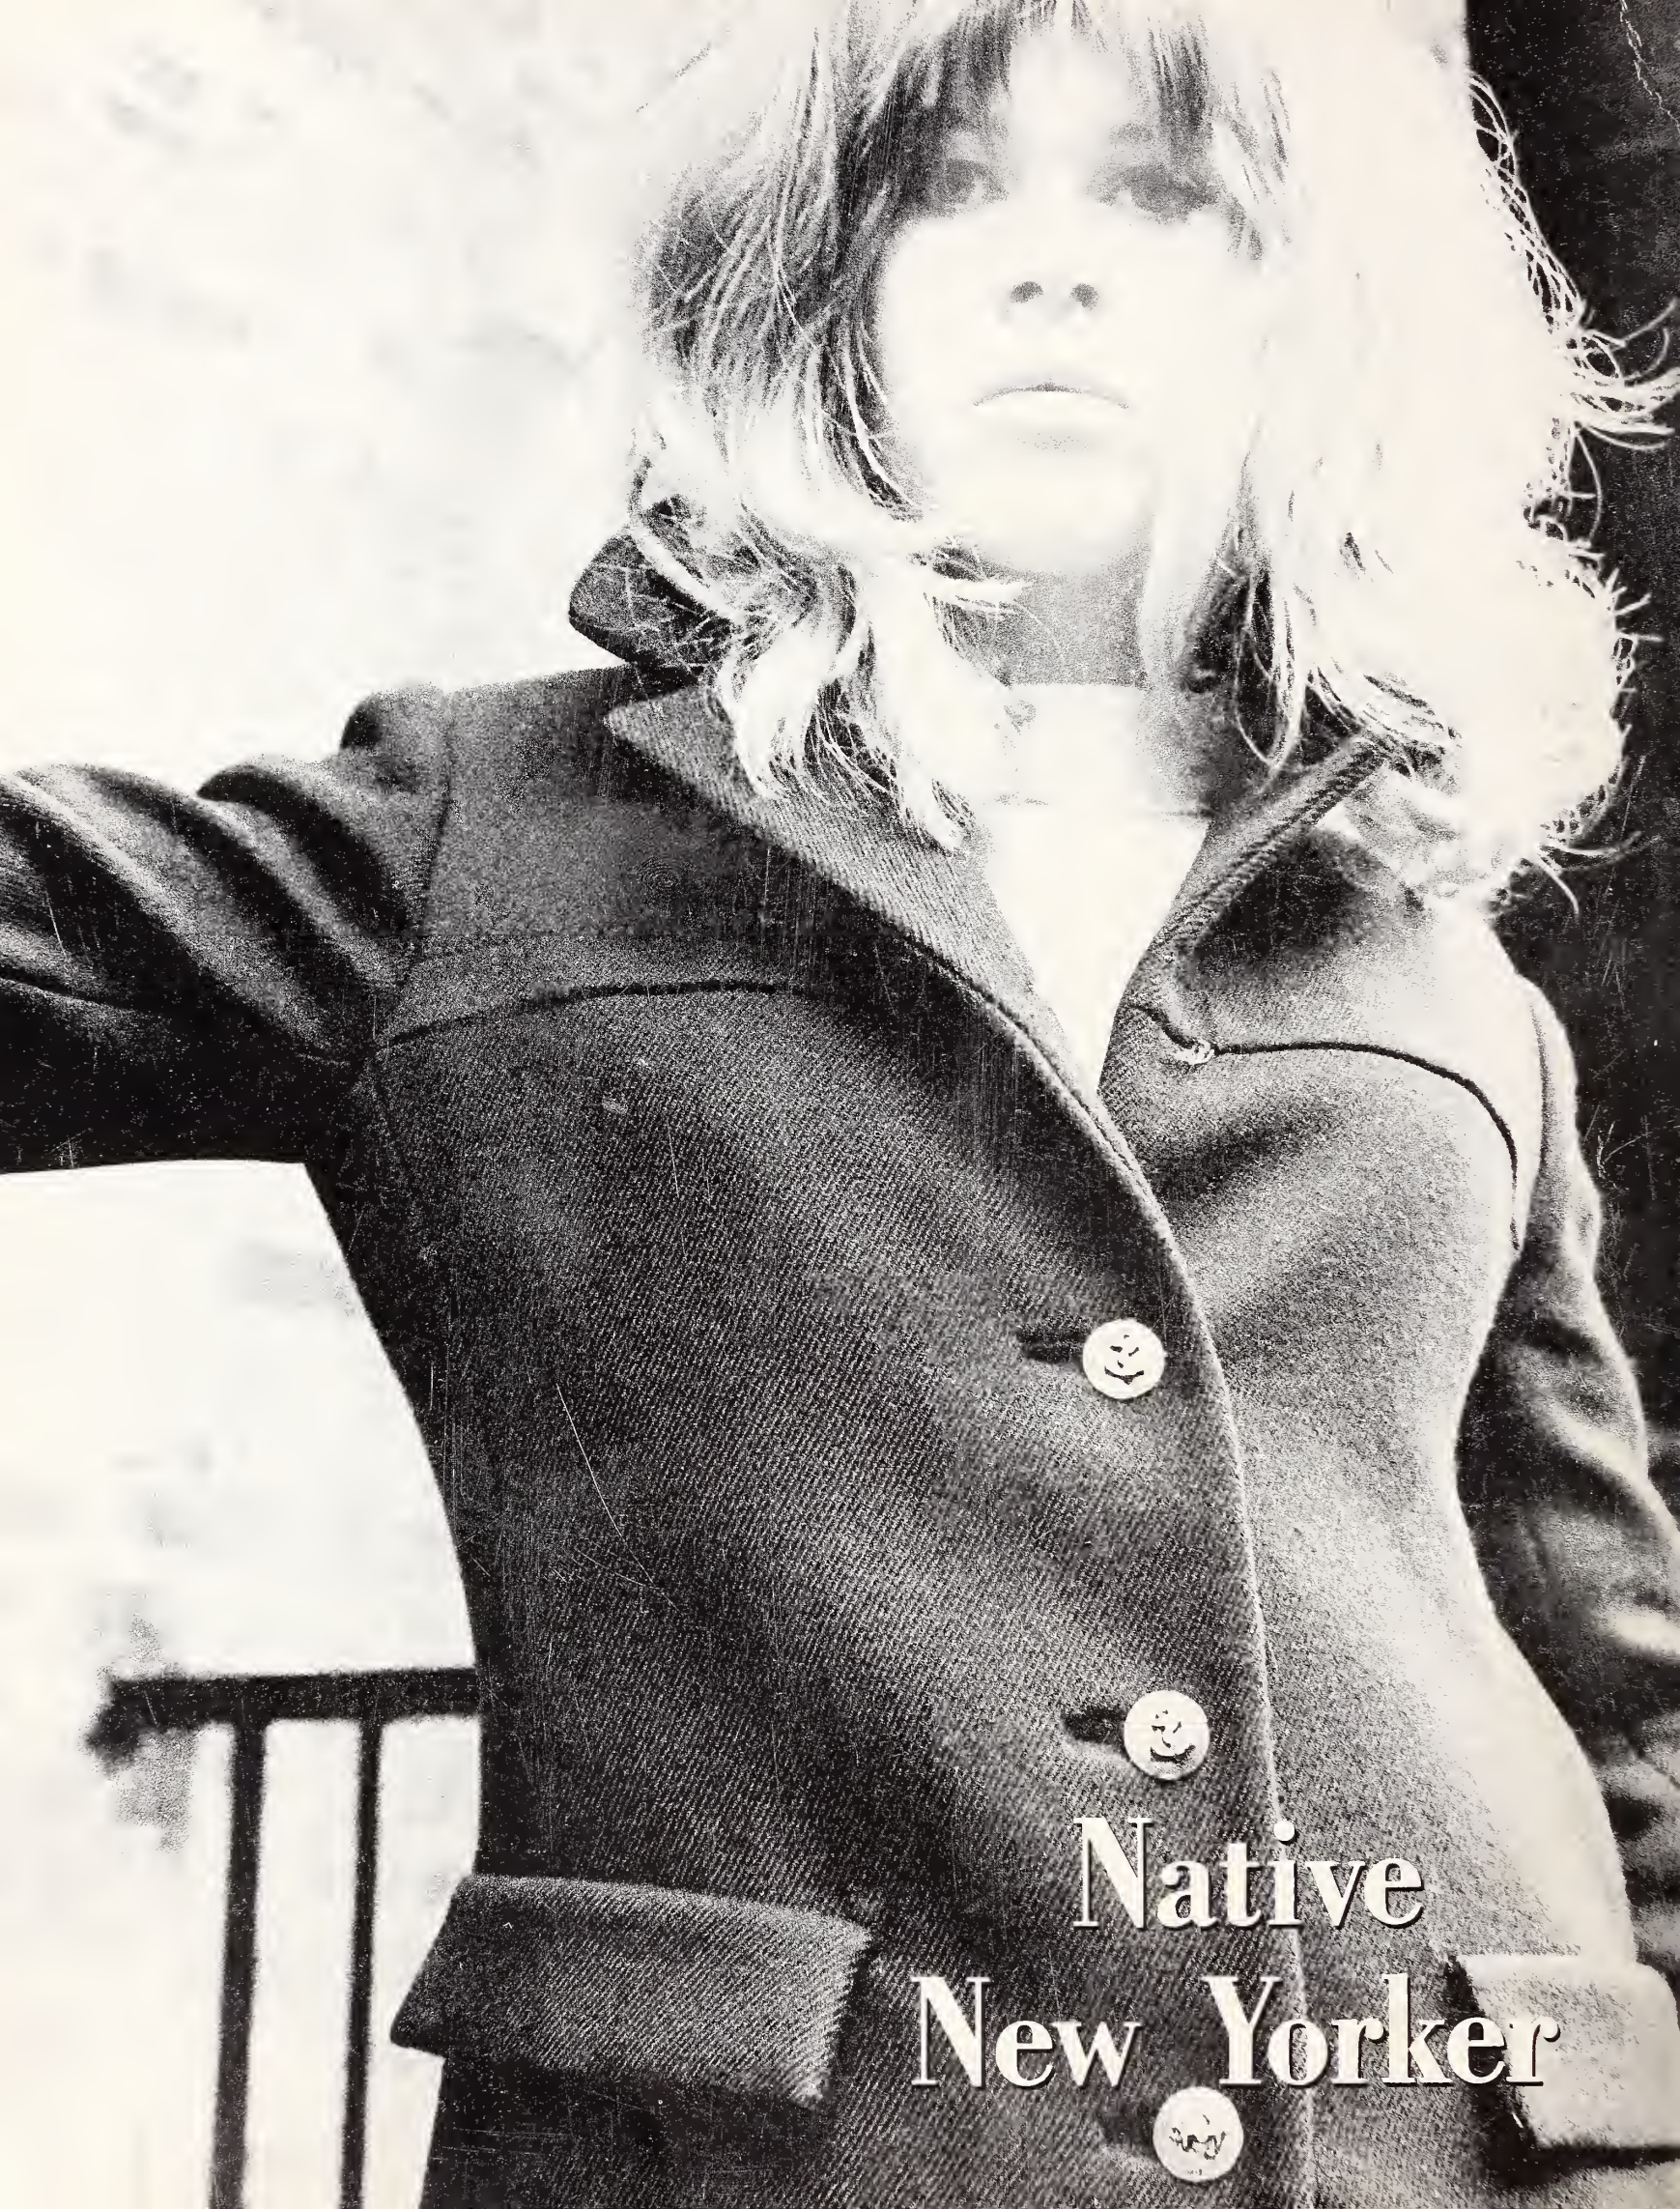

I know that you asked for a personal reply, but due to the volume of letters we receive, I just can't. It would be unfair to everyone else and I wouldn't have time to get the magazine out. The reason I chose to print your letter is that it is exemplary of the kind of feelings that many of us experience.

Please find a counselor of some kind that will support you. If you feel discomfort on any level with whomever you choose, then move on to the next, until you find someone compatible. The nearest gay social services may be able to help find a counselor for you.

Best of luck and please write back soon!

Kim

Sabrina's Coming Out

PART ONE

Sandy & I Make Plans

My very dear friend Sabrina has become so popular in TV society for her grace and beauty. Her reputation is well deserved. I feel a special thrill whenever I see her picture in a magazine or hear of her latest exploits, because it was I who introduced Sabrina to crossdressing. While I can't claim to have made her all she is today, I can take some of the credit for launching her transvestite career.

I was twenty-five and Sandy was nineteen when we met. We were counselors at a summer arts camp in Maine. Although he was rather shy at the beginning of the summer, he soon became popular with campers and staff alike because of his wit, infectious enthusiasm, ready smile and fresh good looks. He caught my eye from the first day of the summer. I used to lay awake nights trying to imagine how his face would look surrounded with blonde curls, or what it would feel like to stroke his legs sheathed in silk stockings.

Both Sandy and I worked in the drama program. I was the chief carpenter. Sandy had been assigned the job of wardrobe manager. One afternoon while working on some sets, I noticed through a gap in the curtains that Sandy was checking over the costumes for the upcoming play, Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Be- ing Earnest. I tried to hide my excitement as I watched him take a billowy Edwardian dress off its hanger and examine it. He ran his fingers back and forth across the silk and lace of the dress to make sure there were no spots or rips.

Sandy must have felt my eyes boring into him, for he looked up in my direction, caught sight of me and waved. Then, to my utter astonishment, he held the dress up to his front and did a little pirouette and courtsey. “Bravo,” I called. “Don’t you mean brava?” he asked with a laugh.

One evening near the end of August, after the campers had departed and the process of closing up the camp for the season had begun, Sandy and I took a long walk along the lake shore. Sandy wanted my advice on transferring from the small college where he had matriculated to a larger, more urban university. After we discussed the subject at length, I suggested that we take a swim in the moonlight.

“That sounds like a great idea,” he said. “I’ll go back to the cabin and get our suits.”

“Don’t bother about that,” I said, trying to keep my voice from cracking with nervous excitement. “Let’s go skinny dipping.” After a moment’s hesitation he smiled and agreed. (Some weeks later, Sandy confessed to me that he had a premonition of my intentions that star-lit evening, and that he was prepared to be receptive to my advances.)

We stripped off our clothes and plunged into the chilly water. Both of us were shivering when we got out — and not only because of the chill in the air. I stood behind Sandy and rubbed his back vigorously. “That feels good,” he admitted, turning towards me and flashing the winsome smile that made my heart melt so many times that summer. “Do it some more. I need to be warmed up.”

I rubbed his chest for a moment. Then I put my hands on his waist. His eyelids fluttered with embarrassment, but his smile did not disappear. He didn’t even recoil when my cock brushed against his thigh, as most young men would have done. I looked down and saw that his prick was starting to swell.

Aroused though we were, we did not make love right away. I wanted our first love-making to occur on fresh, clean sheets, not on sand and pine needles. We lay quietly next to each other on the beach for some time and talked. Then I gently massaged the muscles in Sandy’s back and told him about my plans for us. We agreed to rendezvous the following week at a motel near his home in Connecticut.

astonishment he held up the dress to his front and did a little pirouette and courtsey.”

To seal our new relationship, I nudged Sandy over onto his back and stroked his cock until it was fully swollen, while he brushed his hand up and down my back. I leaned down and kissed him full on the lips. His tongue snaked into my mouth. I nearly short-circuited! With the desperate intensity that had been building up inside us during the entire summer, we French-kissed like high-school sweethearts. Soon I was positioned over Sandy with my knees at his waist. My ass hovered so close to his prick that I could feel his pulse throbbing.

In another minute, I’m sure, I would have reached back and eased myself down onto his erection, had we not heard one of our co-workers calling us from the camp. Our absence had been noted. So with undignified haste and massive frustration, we jumped into our clothes and headed back towards the lights of the bunkhouse. The consummation of our affair would have to be postponed after all.

Most of the week I spent daydreaming about Sandy and what our first private hours together would be like, and trying to imagine how Sandy would look in a transformed state. I worried that he would telephone and cancel the rendezvous. No call came — thank heavens! — but the wait was agonizing.

Part Two — Check-In Time

When the appointed day for my rendezvous with Sandy arrived at last, I checked in early at the motel. I unpacked my suitcase and telephoned Sandy to give him our room number. He sounded nervous. I told him he shouldn’t come unless he was truly eager to come. There was a pause at the other end of the line. “Oh, oh, here it comes,” I thought to myself. “He’s going to call the whole thing off.” When I heard him say that he wouldn’t miss our get-together for the world, a warm feeling of relief swept over me like a wave. I made a couple of other calls, and then left for a nearby mall to shop for Sandy’s new wardrobe.

Several hours later, when I swung back into the motel parking lot, a familiar red Mustang was sitting outside my door. Sandy was in the front seat, waving cheerfully at me. We grinned impishly at each other as we shook hands. I toted my shopping bags into the motel room, and Sandy retrieved his gym bag from the back of his car. “What did you bring?” I asked him. I had promised to provide everything we would need, except for the condoms, which were Sandy’s responsibility. (“Be sure to get the smooth ones,” I had told him. “I want to feel the real you inside of me.”)

He explained that he hadn't been able to resist borrowing a few of his mother's things. “You naughty boy!” I exclaimed, as I closed the motel-room door behind us. “Let's see what you've brought.” It wasn't much — several pieces of fine jewelry, a pair of shoulder-length black gloves and a rather plain panty-girdle. “Good thing I went shopping today,” I joked, “Otherwise, you wouldn't have much to wear.”

I showed Sandy most of the things I had bought for him, holding a few surprises in reserve for later on. Sandy's eyes lit up as he unwrapped my purchases and laid them carefully on the bed. His jaw dropped particularly low when he saw the blonde wig and the black satin pumps I had picked out. He mumbled some polite protestations to the effect that he would “never be able to repay me” for my generosity. Not to worry, I assured him. It had been a tremendous treat for me to select his wardrobe. Also, I told him with a grin, I was sure that he would more than repay me in other ways. He lowered his eyelashes and blushed.

“Would you like to get started now?” I asked Sandy, after I had shown him all the feminine finery in my drawers, the dresses in the closet, and the make-up arranged in front of the bathroom mirror. He nodded his assent. I proposed that I take first turn in the bathtub, so Sandy could watch me prepare my body for my transformation and pick up some pointers on the importance of laying careful groundwork. I warned him that because of my state of high excitement, I couldn't promise that my cock would not swell up — or his, for that matter — but I instructed him to ignore any premature erections that might appear to spoil our girlish figures.

I started the water running in the bathtub, dumped in a cupful of scented bubblebath, and proceeded to remove my clothes in as business-like a manner as I could manage. Sitting on the edge of the tub, my eager pupil observed attentively while I shaved myself completely from neck to toe — except for a neatly trimmed V-shaped tuft of pubic hair.

Sandy was especially impressed to see that I shaved behind my balls and up the crack of my ass. “You don't miss anything, do you?” he exclaimed. “I told you I take this seriously,” I responded. Once out of the tub, I asked Sandy to check my body carefully for any unsightly hairs that may have escaped my razor.

I suggested that Sandy look over some of my TV magazines while I took a shower. “TV magazines?” Sandy asked with a blank look. “TV — short for transvestite,” I explained, laughing to myself at the thought that this naif didn't even recognize that “TV” had a meaning other than “television.”

After I stepped out of the shower and opened the bathroom door to let out the steam, I asked Sandy what he thought of the magazines. “Awesome” was his response. “It's hard to believe that some of these women are really men. How do they do it?” I invited him to come back into the bathroom and find out.

Sandy stood next to me and watched carefully while I rubbed foundation into my freshly shaven face and proceeded to apply my other paints and powders. Soon, to my gratification, I noticed an obvious bulge in the front of Sandy's cut-offs. By the time I was ready to shake out and comb my black pageboy wig, the state of his tumescence was quite obvious. I reached down and gave a playful squeeze to the head of his cock, which had emerged below the bottom of his shorts. “Be careful, tiger,” I warned. “If you get too stiff, we'll never be able to tuck that monster away. Your ladylike figure will be ruined!”

“Now it's time to get you started, my dear,” I said when I had finished with my make-up. I pursed my lips one last time, put the cap back on my lipstick, turned to Sandy and smiled. Although his face betrayed a measure of uncertainty, he responded obediently to my instructions. Soon he was sitting in the bathtub lathering his legs and underarms and chest with shaving cream and wielding his razor under my careful tutelage. “Be especially careful here behind the backs of your knees,” I pointed out. “If you cut yourself there, it will seem like hours before the bleeding stops.”

When Sandy stepped out of the tub, like Venus emerging from the waves, I asked him how it felt to be without body hair. All he could do was shake his head in joyful disbelief. “By the way, did you remember to bring some long pants?” I asked. “When you go back home tomorrow, people may wonder why such a strapping athletic lad like yourself has legs as smooth as a debutante's.” We chuckled.

Part Three — Primping

While Sandy dried off, I had the opportunity to admire his cock from close range. He was circumcised — that much I had already learned at camp. He was very respectfully “hung.” Even in its flacid state, his penis didn't just protrude out straight a couple of inches like the sugar tap on a maple tree; rather, it arched out and down like the end of a garden hose hanging on a rack. It was about an inch and a half in diameter and four inches long in its "natural" condition, I estimated, with a beautifully sculpted head.

I decided to refresh my memory of how big he was in a state of full erection. Not wanting to ruin my lipstick, I licked his cock and balls with the tip of my tongue until he had grown to his full ten inches. My god, how I looked forward to taking him inside of me! Had we not been preparing for a date, I would have begged him to fuck me right then and there! Instead, I sent him into the shower to give us both a chance to cool off.

After Sandy showered, shaved his face and dried himself off, I positioned him in front of the mirror and set to work rubbing foundation cream into his face and neck, darkening his eyebrows with pencil, reddening his cheeks and chin and nose with blusher, and brushing on a veneer of face powder. I explained to Sandy the rules for shaping and moulding a feminine face.

Next came the challenge of making up his eyes — always a difficult job. "Since we're both trembling like leaves in a spring breeze, you'd better sit up here, next to the sink, facing me," I said. "You need to open your knees so I can get closer to you. Oops, I guess I got a little too close. OK. Now stay as still as you can." I shadowed and outlined Sandy's eyes.

Next, I applied glue to the sinfully long false eyelashes I had bought for him. "Those look so heavy. Do you think I'll be able to lift my eyelids?" he joked. After the glue had been exposed to the air for the recommended half-minute or so, I held my breath and painstakingly positioned the lashes. "It's much easier putting these on someone else!" I exclaimed. "When you try doing this yourself, you'll see what I mean."

In my effort to apply the lashes correctly, I leaned up so close to Sandy that his warm prick pressed up against my stomach. I could feel his pulse throbbing through his penis. By now I was fully erect, too, and the head of my cock brushed against the inside of Sandy's thighs.

Once again it was time to cool things off! So while Sandy's lashes dried, I stepped out of the bathroom for a moment. I peeked out the window to see what was happening in the outside world. A maid was walking by our drawn curtains, wheeling her trolley of towels and cleansers. Wouldn't she be shocked, I thought to myself, if she found out what bizarre behavior was going on behind these locked doors?

Sandy was admiring himself in the mirror when I reentered the bath-

"While he preened, I his temples and throat, up the crack of his ass, and on the head of his cock."

room. I spanked his rear and scolded him for being so vain. "Anyway," I assured him. "If you think you look good now, just wait until we darken these beautiful long eyelashes with mascara," which I proceeded to do. I then sent Sandy out to get his new wig from the closet. How proud I felt of my handiwork as I watched him walk back toward me with the wig box in his hand.

Was it my imagination, or had he already become more feminine in gait and manner? I was reminded of the day several years before when I had first rented a hotel room to feminize myself in total privacy and leisure. I hoped that Sandy was now feeling the same vivid thrill I had felt then.

I sensed Sandy's breath growing faster as I took the wig out of the box, oriented it properly, and drew the cap snugly down over his head. "Don't look in the mirror yet," I commanded as I fluffed up his new puffy blonde curls. I wanted him to wait and see his new face as a finished product. I outlined his lips with red pencil. "We're almost done now!" I promised, as I searched through the lipsticks on the counter for the pink shade I had selected for Sandy's first trip across the gender divide. When I found it, he agreed it was just the right tint.

"OK, you can look now," I said, after I had painted his rosebud lips and moistened them with lip gloss. "Wait! On second thought, let's get some jewelry on you first. How about these diamond earrings? They clip on to the bottom of your earlobes. That's right. Now look in the mirror and get an eyeful of yourself."

Sandy's eyes glistened and his lips parted as he stared at his new image. While he stood transfixed, I fastened his necklace at the back of his neck, put my arms around his waist, and squeezed him lovingly. He turned his head and body to examine himself in the mirror from every angle. While he preened, I daubed perfume on his temples and throat, up the crack of his ass, and on the head of his cock. I did the same to myself. I wanted both of us to be sweet-smelling all over.

"Well, baby doll," I said, as I took Sandy by the hand and pulled him away from the mirror. "You look pretty nice from the neck up, but we still have work to do. And time is passing quickly. We'll be late for our dates if we waste too much time."

"Our dates?" Sandy asked incredulously.

"Yes, our dates. You don't think we're getting all dressed up just to sit here in this motel room, do you? What a waste it would be not to let the world get a glimpse of us tonight. I'll tell you about our arrangements for this evening while we are doing our nails."

La Rey does it again. On these pages we see slices of the fun-filled lives of these extraordinary contestants and entertainers who each year provide us with one of the most exciting nights of the year.
